

BISPHAM FAMILY MAY FIGHT LEGACY TO MRS. TEN EYCK

Chief Beneficiary in Singer Will Is Wife of Former New Jersey Judge.

Mrs. Henrietta Muller Ten Eyck of No. 50 Central Park West, whom David S. Bispham, noted American baritone, described in his will as "my friend," and to whom he bequeathed most of his estate, was identified yesterday as the wife of Jay Ten Eyck, former Judge of the Essex County, N. J., Court.

Mrs. Ten Eyck, in addition to sharing equally with the widow and two daughters of Bispham in an estate which he inherited from his grandfather, receives all of the residue, after a few minor bequests to relatives.

Unless a settlement sets aside the legacy of Mrs. Ten Eyck, according to intimate friends of the widow, a legal fight is promised.

The Ten Eycks were married in Newark in June, 1894. Mrs. Ten Eyck was Miss Henrietta Muller, daughter of the Rev. L. C. Muller of Newark. For years she has been a leading member of the choir of the First Reformed Church of Newark, of which the Rev. John Trousdale is pastor.

Jay Ten Eyck is associate counsel of the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company of Newark. He said yesterday:

"The amount of the legacy that Mrs. Ten Eyck receives, as I understand it, is about $25,000. Mrs. Ten Eyck and I were friends of Mr. Bispham for about twenty-five years. There was an understanding that a considerable portion of the legacy would go for a monument for Mr. Bispham. The bequest was made to my wife to enable her to carry out certain arrangements which Mr. Bispham had in mind several years before he died. Among these was the building of the monument. The reason that he selected my wife to carry out his plans was that his relatives are in distant parts of the country, and knowing my wife so well he trusted her to carry out his wishes. Mrs. Ten Eyck denied herself to callers yesterday."

Never Saw Mrs. Ten Eyck,
Says Widow of Bispham
STAMFORD, Conn., Nov. 30.—Mrs. Caroline Bispham, at Rosemary Inn, said to-day that she was under orders from her counsel not to talk about her husband's will. She has been living in Stamford since the death of her son David, a Lieutenant in the Royal Flying Corps, who was killed in 1917.
"I have never seen Mrs. Ten Eyck," said Mrs. Bispham, "and I know nothing personally about her."

SCHOOL CARETAKER A SUICIDE.
George Kroger, sixty-five years old, caretaker of the Foxwood School at No. 126 Bowne Avenue, Flushing, committed suicide to-day, according to the police, by inhaling illuminating gas. His body was found, fully clothed, on the bed of his room at the school. A gas tube was in the man's mouth, with the gas full on.
